I have little confidence in men who beg forgiveness of their God, but who haven't the courage or decency to admit to the damage they've done to others.

117-117-117

Two writers of the latter 19th century still say something to those in the 20th. Both were newspaper reporters or correspondents before they went into fiction.

One was Englishman Rudyard Kipling, who started writing in India in English language newspapers before his work and reputation preceded him to England.

The other was American Mark Twain, or Samuel Clemens, whose boyhood classics about youth on the Mississippi River in Missouri won international acclaim and the Nobel Prize for Literature.

If there are any absolutes about these men, other than their literary gifts, it was the songs they sang of their nations: Kipling in India of the vanished Colonial British Empire, and Twain in Mid-America and New England of enterprising post-Civil War U.S.

Were they just storyteller and poet and novelist. I doubt it.

There was a singularity about these men as individuals. Twain was one of the West when in this country's history it was not a cliché or backdrop for selling cigarettes and beer.

Kipling himself knew the crowded conditions and poverty of Colonial India which despite Gandhi has yet to emerge from the sub-continental Middle Ages.

He wrote of animals and fairy tales which kindled the imaginations of several generations of readers in numerous languages.

His "Rikki-tavi," the story about a heroic mongoose who saves an English family from cobras, is one of the more popular "Jungle Tales" and recent cartoon subject on network television.

Maybe it is Kipling's typical British "stiff upper lip" demeanor that appeals to me. It is more likely that no one has topped him, unless it is the cartoon genius of Walt Disney.

This is not to turn back the calendar. Hardly. It is only reflection on what still is important when children take on the guise, perhaps the disguise, of men.

Kipling spoke to this in a bit of poetry, a bit of advice I recently saw framed and hanging in a room during a reception.

It still is apt.

IF—

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or, being hated, don't give way to hating,
Or yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise;

If you can dream—and not make dreams your master;
If you can think—and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with triumph and disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools;

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings;
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on";

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings—nor lose the common touch;
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you;
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforlorning minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run—
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

Thorndale Voters

Nix Bond Issue

Voters in Thorndale Saturday turned down a $995,000 bond issue to finance a new elementary school, band hall, and gym at the Thorndale School site.

The bond bid failed 199 to 321. The elementary school would have cost about $450,000. The gym and band hall, under one roof, was expected to run about $530,000.

Ambulance Service Extended As City, County Continue Hassle

Both Cameron funeral homes have come through with a last minute offer to extend ambulance service until September 30 instead of cutting it off June 15, and city council in an emergency meeting Wednesday morning aired an offer of funds from the two county precincts concerned.

Councilman Gene Lumpkin said he has been negotiating with commissioners of Precinct 1, Adolph Gresak, and Precinct 2, LaVert McKinney.

Lumpkin said the two had offered $2,000 each for the next 12 months for operating ambulances in the county.

Lumpkin said County Judge O. B. Harden told him he was "stepping out" of the hassle, but Lumpkin said the judge and other commissioners must approve expenditure of funds through Gresak and McKinney. Lumpkin said he thought Judge Harden "was not acting in good faith" and he felt the judge had instructed the commissioners to make the offer.

Mayor Lawrence Zott said negotiations with the county should continue, as $4,000 will not pay for out-of-town ambulance calls.

A suggestion was made to triple charges for out-of-town calls so that county residents would prod commissioners to furnish more of the costs.

According to council discussion, the Cameron police department will apparently handle the driving of the ambulances which will be turned over to the city by both funeral homes.

Councilwoman Jan Luecke and Lumpkin will meet with commissioners Monday to continue negotiations, and the council will meet Monday afternoon to further consider the problem.

Mayor Zott said even with the extension of time, the city should move ahead with negotiations and settle the problem once and for all before the new deadline.

13 County Families In Heritage Program

AUSTIN

With 13 Milam County families already registered in the Texas Family Land Heritage Program, the search continues for additional farms and ranches which can lay claim to 100 years or more of continuous, productive operation, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said today.

May 1 marked the beginning of the third year of registration under the Land Heritage Program, which since its institution in 1974 has seen the recognition of almost 950 families for their dedication to Texas agriculture, Commissioner White explained.

"Along with providing a special recognition of those Texas families who through the years have persevered on the land, the program also serves as a means of preserving the state's rich agricultural heritage," White said.

As well as being recognized in the Texas Family Land Heritage Regis-

Runoff Election Sees Close Race For Constable

The Precinct 2 constable race was the closest of Saturday's runoff election, with Griss Wells defeating incumbent Rex Jones by a vote of 90 to 85.

Incumbent Milam County Commissioner Adolph Gresak won re-election by polling 305 votes to challenger Evelyn Abel's 256.

In the only other county runoff race, Maurice Lowrey won the Precinct 1 constable position with 397 votes to 354 for his opponent, H. T. "Tommy" Chamberlain.

The Texas Railroad Commissioners race went to Jon Newton, who defeated Jerry Sadler with 1,285 votes to Sadler's 718.

W. T. Phillips carried the county in his bid for the Texas court of Criminal Appeals with 1,061 votes to Carl Dally's 840.

try, published each year with a history of the farms and ranches, honorees in the Program also receive certificates which are presented during special ceremonies at the State Fair in Dallas in October.

Applications for the Program, the deadline for which is August 16, may be obtained from three sources--the county judge's office, the county chairman of the Texas Historical Commission, or by writing the Family Land Heritage Program, Texas Department of Agriculture, P. O. Box 12847 Austin, TX 78711.

Applicants must provide supporting documents of ownership of the land to the county judge for certification of their application before it is submitted to the Agriculture Department, with the final decision on the farm or ranch's eligibility determined by the Program staff, White stated.

In order to qualify, White explained, an applicant must own the land and reside in Texas and the line of ownership from the first family member owning the land may be through wives and husbands, children, brothers and sisters, and nephews and nieces.

Solons Urge Funding For Elm Creek Project

WASHINGTON, C.

Sen. Lloyd Bentsen and Cong. W. R. Poage have urged Congress to authorize funding for the Elm Creek Watershed Project in Central Texas.

The flood control and soil erosion project will cost $6,671,330, with the Federal government paying $4,200,448 of that amount. The Watershed is located in Bell, Falls, McLennan, and Milam counties.

Bentsen and Poage have testified before congressional committees in favor of the project.

"Flooding is a serious and dangerous problem throughout the 200,000 acres of valuable agricultural land known as the Elm Creek Watershed," the legislators said in a statement Monday.

They pointed out that average annual damages amount to almost $600,000. And they said the plan worked out by the Soil Conservation Service will not only relieve the flooding problems but will permit area residents to make improvements such as roads and sanitary landfills that are not now possible.

"The farmers and ranchers in this area are hardworking, industrious people. Many of them have tried and are still trying individual conservation efforts to reduce further damages to their land," Bentsen and Poage said.

"However, these efforts are frustrated by the lack of a coordinated area-wide program. The size of the effort and the technology needed make our involvement necessary," they said.

Bentsen and Poage said the plan has a favorable benefit-cost ratio of 1.9 to 1.

Extension Service Names Director

Dr. Daniel C. Pfannstiel has been named director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the Texas A&M University System's public service agency which provides agricultural, homemaking, 4-H, and consumer assistance to thousands of Texans throughout the state.

Pfannstiel's appointment was made last week by the Texas A&M University System Board of Regents, subject to concurrence of the U. S. Secretary of Agriculture. The appointment was effective June 1.

Breaching Urged For Failing Rosebud Dam

The water level in the Rosebud Lake should be lowered by several feet, Texas Water Development Board engineers are recommending, to avoid damage to stock and land in the flood plain.

The earthen dam has been cracking since last September, and engineers said that any substantial rain in the area could cause it to give way.

The city has an alternate plan to supply water to residents via a 10-inch pipeline from the water treatment plant to the Brazos River.

Engineers said that there is no danger that Rosebud's water treatment plant would be destroyed if the dam fails--something which had been feared earlier.

The Board has recommended that the water level in the reservoir be lowered by several feet, but not that the lake be drained altogether.

The age of the dam is a major factor in its failure, engineers say. The dam was built in 1909.

Gov. Briscoe To Speak At Annual Stiles Field Day

THRALL

Gov. Dolph Briscoe will be the featured speaker at the 14th annual Stiles Farm Foundation Field Day here June 15.

Briscoe is expected to address a crowd of more than 1,500 farmers, ranchers, and agribusinessmen from throughout the Central Texas Blacklands at a special field day program beginning at 5:30 p.m.

The program will be preceded by tours of crop and livestock enterprises on the 3,200-acre demonstration farm which will be conducted at 2 to 4 p.m. Highlighting the tours will be discussions on narrow-row cotton, minimum tillage, new fast growth Bermudagrass varieties, and growth implants in beef cattle, points out Calvin Rinn, farm manager. Tours will leave every 15 minutes.

Other highlights of the field day will be equipment displays and information booths dealing with all phases of crop and livestock production, notes Rinn.

Californians Press . . .

California is pressing.

While Jimmy Carter, the Georgia Southern Baptist, has about 1,200 delegates ahead of the 1976 National Democratic Convention, a lead reminiscent of the 1960 lead by John Kennedy, the Massachusetts Catholic, there is a glimmer that Jerry Brown, California governor and former seminary student, will rally support after a first ballot. President Gerald Ford won GOP support in Ohio and among GOP uncommitteds in New Jersey, conceded by Ronald Reagan who carried all 167 GOP delegates in California.

Ford has about 870 delegates and Reagan about 830. GOP uncommitteds total more than 250, easily the margin either man needs for the nomination this summer.

What is interesting about the final primaries in Ohio, New Jersey, and California, representing about one-third of the convention delegates in both parties, is that the West Coast's incumbent and former governors maintain sole influence in what otherwise appears nomination for Carter and the President.

Carter carried big in Ohio, apparently lost 40 uncommitteds to Brown while winning 35 delegates in New Jersey and lost California big to Brown though gathering up more than 60 delegates. Stu Udall and Frank Church are out of it.

California polls show Brown is the most popular governor since, you guessed it, Ronald Reagan, 65. Brown at 38 and the son of another former California governor is looking ahead to not just a summer Democratic convention, but to 1980.

It must be said that Carter has run the longest, most gruelling primary contest of any Democratic candidate, but it must also be said he did not run against the strength of the Establishment Democrats, the "Washingtonians," but early on against a wheel-chaired George Wallace.

Only in recent weeks have Brown and Church, until Ohio, late-announcing contestants, showed Carter's vulnerability.

The past few weeks, Carter's smile is not so pronounced, and he has spoken to issues. But as Brown said late Tuesday, and he (Brown) is not the most direct spokesman on issues to run a campaign, Carter still seems to circle, not to stand.

Chicago Mayor Richard Daley, dean of city Democratic bosses in this country, seems to like Carter. He likes the overtones of religious seriousness in Carter's campaign.

But, most of all, Daley likes to win. He wants Democrats to win the White House in November. He sees Carter as the man who can win.

Daley delivered solid Chicago support to young John Kennedy in the 1960 general election when Kennedy beat Richard Nixon by about a quarter-million votes or less. Daley long has run Chicago Democratic politics like Kelley and earlier mayors in the Windy City.

Daley would seem to be countering what Brown says. And this is an interesting confrontation. If Brown can continue his late, long-shot wins in caucus delegate votes, he might convince a figure like Daley and major labor leaders Carter is not a "lead-pipe cinch" against Ford or Reagan and particularly a ticket of Ford-Reagan.

It is well to remember Carter is somewhere to the right of center in his government and economics. He is somewhere to the left of Reagan, who also emphasized religious and moral values in his campaign. But Carter is probably, and we're not sure, just about where Gerald Ford will be if Ford dominates the GOP convention.

Jerry Brown senses a brief opening which might rally displaced candidates Udall, Wallace, Church, Jackson, and uncommitteds to another candidate. Though it may not be Brown, the Democrat, he may be a "causist" spoiler, just as Reagan is the "causist" spoiler thus far to a clear nomination for Ford.

The Californians are having their say. They are the last to say it. And unless Jimmy Carter catapults his mid-week position into a stampede, which is possible, Jerry Brown may give Daley and other Democratic powers enough pause to keep the convention open.

California is bigger than Cook County.

Cut Urged In State Workers

A five per cent reduction in state government workers during the next three years has been recommended by the joint Advisory Committee on Government Operations.

The payroll cut was among 15 recommendations of the 18-member panel headed by Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby.

Executive and legislative budget boards were directed to formulate a plan to increase productivity of state employees starting Sept. 1, 1977.

Panel members figured a five per cent work force trimming can be brought about largely by leaving jobs vacant when employees resign or retire.

Commission members deadlocked on a proposal to limit the expansion of government employment to the population growth rate of about 1.6 per cent annually. Instead, they came up with a general limitation on increases to be lifted only when existing employees can no longer handle the work load or new assignments mandated by federal action.

The number of state employees grew 107 per cent between 1963 and 1975, and payroll costs have grown 357 per cent. During the period, the population increased 19 per cent.

Commissioners also recommended abolishing the State Building Commission, consolidating 300 state funds and allowing the legislature to give the governor budget execution controls.

Special Session Urged

A new call for a special legislative session on rising utilities bills was issued by Sen. A.R. Schwartz of Galveston.

Schwartz presented a petition by voters in his district urging Gov. Dolph Briscoe to summon lawmakers for rescue measures benefitting consumers.

The senator also pre-filed in the Senate three bills designed to cut utilities bills as much as 15 per cent. They would remove the sales tax from residential gas and electricity, shift gas regulation to the Public Utilities Commission and impose a five cents per 1,000 cubic feet tax on natural gas producers in place of the present levy to equalize the in-state out-of-state tax load.

Storm Toll High

Recent storms in Texas did more than $7 million worth of damage, according to Texas insurance industry estimates.

Heavy damage was recorded in Dallas, Graham, Mineral Wells and Olney. Estimates did not include damage from Central Texas and Hill Country storms.

State Insurance Board Chairman Joe Christie said the insurance industry is trying to handle storm claims promptly.

Bank Study Out

Total reorganization of the State Banking Department, better-paid bank examiners and changes in examination procedures were recommended by a recent management study.

The study concluded the department is not keeping pace with requirements for examining each state bank three times every two years. One bank was found not to have been checked in 14 months and 100 to have been skipped for eight months.

Courts Speak

Court of Criminal Appeals reversed a Fort Worth kidnapping conviction because prosecutors suppressed the fact an accomplice witness was involved in plea bargaining.

Texas Supreme Court heard oral arguments over whether deposed District Judge O.P. Carrillo can be removed from the bench through Judicial Qualifications Commission action for misconduct not related to his judicial duties.

A 53rd District Court jury awarded $10,000 damages to an Austin black man who charged two Austin police officers used excessive force in arresting him for allegedly violating their order. Lawyers for the policemen say they will appeal.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editor:

Some men, I understand, won't leave work in the afternoon till their desk is cleared off, some clean their desk off once a week, some once a month, some every spring. I have never been bound by such rigid rules. I clean mine off when it won't hold any more.

It reached that peak yesterday and here are a few items I picked up after they fell on the floor:

(1) It seems to me that while it might be asking too much of human nature to expect to have politicians who won't lie, it looks like some of the more notorious ones would learn at least to stop lying about their lying. It makes you wonder about a politician's intelligence when he looks into the TV camera and says "I never was in her apartment," only to have it come out that actually he was there twice a week for two years. It looks like Congress has to do either one of two things: straighten up, or ban investigative reporting.

(2) As Mark Twain said, some people will lie on credit when they could tell the truth for cash.

(3) I understand the big New York City University has closed down because its broke. Congress ought to do something about that immediately. You start closing down public outfits because they're broke and what do you think will happen to Washington?

(4) According to a statistical firm, what a person earns from January 1 to May 1 goes for taxes, and it's not until May 2 that he actually starts working for himself. It has taken us 200 years to go from No Taxation without Representation to No Representation without Taxation.

(5) Washington has a hard time learning. It has been denouncing Cuba for sending troops to Angola, when it ought to be sitting back grinning. If Cuba hasn't learned from us what it can cost a nation to send troops to a country half-way around the world, it ought to be her worry, not ours.

My desk is now cleared off. I didn't know it was that color.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Short Snorts

Millions of dollars in crops were lost due to recent storms which slammed the state.

The Railroad Commission called a July 12 hearing on Southern Union Gas Company's application to abandon service July 26 to rural unincorporated areas in the Panhandle formerly served by Western Gas Service.

Applications to drill oil and gas tests in Texas totaled 7,328 through May, an increase from 6,447 for the January-May period in 1975.

A $2.1 million highway safety improvement program calls for work in Amarillo, Fort Worth, Odessa, Lufkin, Austin, San Antonio, Beaumont and Pharr districts.

Bentsen Seeks Penalties For Acts Of Terrorism

WASHINGTON, D.C. Senator Lloyd Bentsen Thursday introduced bills to make acts of terrorism a Federal crime, with a mandatory death penalty when someone is killed, and to withhold foreign aid from countries that harbor terrorists.

"No form of lawlessness is more senseless or vicious than an act of violent terrorism: a bomb left in a luggage locker at an air, line terminal to kill and maim indiscriminately, a building set on fire a sniper's bullet," Bentsen said in Senate remarks.

Under one of the two bills introduced by Bentsen crimes of terrorist organizations--such as kidnapping, sabotage, destruction of Federal property--would be punishable by the normal sentence for the offense in question plus an additional two-to-ten year sentence. Two years additional would be the minimum with no possibility of probation or parole.

If the terrorist act results in someone's death the offense would carry a mandatory death sentence.

Under the second Bentsen anti-terrorism bill the President is required to suspend foreign aid, loans, and trade preferences to any country which willfully aids and abets international terrorism.

"In spite of the fact that international terrorism has continued to grow, no legal solutions are in sight. Many nations, particularly those in the Third World, are unwilling to cooperate in efforts to combat terrorism which, they say, can be justified under certain circumstances," Bentsen said.

"Sources report that almost half of those terrorists captured in the last five years have been released.

Farm Real Estate Values Are Soaring

From the time of the last revision of federal estate taxes applicable to farms which was made in 1942, farm real estate values have soared from $33.6 billion to more than $370 billion, Jay Naman, president of the Texas Farmers Union said here today.

Naman made the statement as he released a copy of the testimony which was presented by the National Farmers Union to the Senate Finance Committee which is writing legislation revising the nation's estate tax laws.

Naman said one of the problems, brought out in the testimony is that "farm real estate values have almost doubled since 1970, pushing many farming units into a valuation level making them subject to estate taxes which virtually prevent the land from being kept in the family."

"Whereas, the transition of the farm from father to son was still possible a few years ago, it is a difficult matter today."

Reuben L. Johnson, director of legislative services for National Farmers Union presented the farm organization's views before the Senate Committee.

The Farmers Union official said that on the basis of the comparative purchasing power of the dollar in 1942 and today, the federal estate tax exemption would have to be adjusted from $60,000 to about $200,000.

Naman also stressed the need for any legislation which may be adopted by the Congress in regard to federal estate taxes to include a provision requiring farms to be valued for estate tax purposes according to their value for farming, rather than their possible value for other-than-farm-use.

The major U.S. city with the highest recorded annual temperature is Honolulu, Hawaii, which averages 75.1°F a year.

The unwillingness of these nations to bring the full force of the law to bear against these international outlaws threatens the safety and peace of all nations."

Senator Bentsen said that 800 people have been killed, 1700 injured in international terrorist incidents since 1968. One hundred and fourteen U. S. citizens have been involved, he said, 24 of them killed.

"The time has come for laws that state clearly and decisively that violent crimes to further a political viewpoint will not be tolerated. We will not put up with murder in the name of some higher cause. We will not allow violence under the guise of some higher belief," Bentsen said.

"We cannot permit an individual or group of individuals to seek to impose their beliefs through the destruction of lives or property, without incurring the severe punishment that such conduct deserves," Senator Bentsen said.

Radials Need Proper Inflation

Simply looking at radial tires to see if they are properly inflated can be dangerously misleading, the Tire Industry Safety Council cautioned today.

Tire pressure should be physically measured with an accurate gauge, according to the Council.

"Motorists who got used to the slight bulge in the sidewall of a properly inflated radial tire may not be aware that a seriously underinflated radial looks much the same way," explained Council Chairman Malcolm R. Lovell, Jr. The appearance of a properly inflated radial tire is almost identical to a dangerously underinflated radial lacking 30 percent or more of the recommended air pressure.

As a car is driven, the sidewalls of any underinflated tire are subject to much more bending and flexing than they were designed to handle. This excess flexing builds up damaging heat which can reach more than 250 degrees F., much more than needed to boil water.

"This high temperature not only begins to soften the rubber so it wears rapidly, but it can break own the tire components and the tire may fail," Lovell said.

Other suggestions about radial tire use from the council include:

"When radial tires are used with bias ply or bias belted tires on the same vehicle, the radials must always be placed on the rear wheels. Check automobile manufacturer's recommendations or tire instructions before 'mixing' any types or sizes of tires.

"When radial tires are used on all wheels, they should be rotated from front to rear on the same side of the car. The criss-cross pattern used with other types of tires should not be used. "Before converting to radials, make sure the suspension system and shock absorbers of your car are engineered for radials, particularly if it is an older model.

County Agent's Notes

Grading Tough Dose For Wheat Producers

By Bill McCutchen

The grading this year is a tough dose for wheat producers. Last year there was no discount for yellow hard wheats and even the soft wheats were accepted as yellow hard wheat. This year the discount on soft wheat is a whopping 45¢ and yellow hard wheats are due a 10¢ to 12¢ dock on grade before moisture, test weight, and foreign material are figured. Kenneth Waites, assistant agent; Reeves Brown; and myself harvested Reeves' wheat variety plots on May 28. These were 1/2 acre plots and were combine harvested and weighed on public scales.

On yield alone Coker 68-15 cut 46 bushels, TAM 101-43 bushels; Sturdy, 39 bushels; Dekalb, 39 bushels; Caprock, 38 bushels; Pioneer 908, 37 bushels; Pioneer 915A, 34 bushels; and TAM 103, 23 bushels.

To assist with the evaluation of the wheat demonstration we asked Robert Clark of Milam Grain to grade the varieties. TAM 101 and Coker 68-15 graded as soft wheat, TAM 103 graded yellow hard, Dekalb graded #3 hard wheat, and the remainder were #2 hard wheats.

Tough standards this year are being imposed by the big grain companies, and local elevators are caught in the middle as of course are the farmers.

The Dekalb and two Pioneer varieties were hybrid wheats. As hybrid wheats seed costs are higher and several bushels more production would be required to offset this cost, they did not produce more.

TAM 103 was severely damaged by rust and TAM 101 was hurt by grade.

This means basically that Sturdy is still our No. 1 hard wheat for this area and the only other that could compete with it in this test was Caprock, which is almost a twin sister to Sturdy.

Many producers will still want to consider planting Coker 68-15, a soft wheat, next year. Even though you may still receive a 45 cent dock or more, it produces early grazing and the yield on Coker will usually make it as profitable for grain production as Sturdy or Caprock.

Thanks to Reeves Brown, Skip Hobbs, and Robert Clark for their assistance in this variety test. More detailed information will be available later.

New Procedures Rewritten For Sales Tax Exemptions

Comptroller Bob Bullock said Tuesday his office has rewritten sales tax procedures on agricultural exemptions to make them as easy to read as a mail-order catalog.

"Inflation has squeezed the farmer and rancher tighter than a bale of wet hay," Bullock said. "Our new procedures are clear enough for them to be able to take advantage of the sales tax exemptions to which they are entitled."

The new procedures will be effective about July 15, he said.

The Comptroller said the procedures clarify the fact that the following items are exempt from the sales tax: expendable supplies such as hand tools, baling wire, binders twine, hardware, tires and lubricants for farm machinery, fences, pens, gates, cattle guards and chutes, and structures that can be considered a piece of equipment such as automated laying houses and farrowing houses. However, most farm buildings, such as barns, garages, warehouses, and family dwellings, are taxable, he said.

Exemptions for farm machinery and equipment and storage facilities will be clearcut, Bullock said, as well as the general exemption for all medications and tonics given to farm animals. In addition, he noted, the term "farm or ranch" has now been clearly defined for the first time.

Bullock said the new procedures tie in with Internal Revenue Service regulations. Proof that the IRS has allowed an item as an investment credit will be evidence that the item should be exempted from the sales tax, he said.

However, he emphasized, any farmer or rancher seeking an exemption must have an exemption certificate on file with the retailer at the time of purchase.

The Comptroller said that persons needing more information about the new procedures may call the Comptroller's Office toll-free at 1-800-292-9687.

Screwworm Situation Bad For Texas This Summer

By Robert Glodt Jr.

It's "bad news" as far as the story on the screwworm situation in Texas is concerned. The year got off to a bad start with early outbreaks of the flesh-eating pest in South Texas, and things have gotten progressively worse.

Right now, screwworm cases in Texas are running ahead of the record-setting pace of 1972. The main concern is that the cases are spreading rapidly to the north, west, and east. Through May 29 more than 60 counties have reported one or more screwworm infestations.

A primary reason for the higher infestations this early in the year is that the past winter was quite mild, thereby allowing more of the screwworm explosion last fall in South Texas that was triggered by a massive infestation of Gulf Coast ear-ticks.

Webb County has been the screwworm hotspot this year with three times as many infestations as in 1972. Other heavily infested counties have been Zapata, Starr, Hidalgo, Jim Hogg, and Dimmit. Screwworm cases have already been confirmed as far north as Baylor County, as far west as Pecos and Terrell Counties, and as far as Colorado County.

All counties with confirmed cases have been bombarded with sterile flies to break up the reproductive cycle of the female screwworm flies. Screwworm flies that mate with the sterile ones will not produce fertile eggs.

Although the situation looks bleak, some help appears on the way although it may not arrive until this fall. That's when the new insectary at Tuxtla Gutierrez in Southern Mexico should be in operation to produce sterile flies to wage the war against the costly screwworm throughout the country of Mexico. This will mean that more of the sterile flies produced at the Mission Lab will be used to battle screwworm infestations north of the Rio Grande.

In the meantime, the burden is on livestock producers to keep a watchful eye of their stock, to follow a regular spraying program to control flies and other insects, and to treat all wounds with a protective smear. Both CoRal and Korlan afford some protection about two weeks.

Of course, if worms are found in any wounds, a sample should be sent to the Mission Lab as soon as possible. Kits for mailing worm samples are available from the County Extension Office as well as from veterinarians and livestock inspectors.

The "tenderizer" in meat tenderizers is a natural plant enzyme called papain, obtained from the papaya fruit. The Food and Drug Administration says it is generally recognized as safe for use on foods which are subsequently cooked.

'Texas' Pageant Opens At Palo Duro Canyon

One of the outstanding attractions in Texas' largest state park is about to open again for summer visitors. At Palo Duro Canyon State Park the 11th season of the musical drama "Texas" will start June 16 and run through August 21.

The drama takes place under the stars in the outdoor Pioneer Amphitheater with a 1,200-foot cliff as backdrop. It brings to life the region's turbulent history and the struggles of the people who formed it--the early explorers, Indians, cowboys, and settlers. There are both pathos and comedy, scored with music, dancing, and sensational lighting and sound effects.

This outdoor musical twice has been designated the nation's Number One tourist attraction and also has been awarded the George Washington Honor Medal for proclaiming the American way of life. Last year it attracted more than 92,000 viewers.

Dramatist is the noted playwright Paul Green, author of seven other historical pageants regularly performed across the nation. As with several other of these dramas, Isaac Van Grove is the musical collaborator. The talented cast of 100 singers, dancers, and actors mostly are West Texas students.

The setting of this historical epic is equally dramatic. A spectacular gash in the flat ranchlands of the Panhandle, Palo Duro Canyon is some 11,000 feet deep and 120 miles long, with the northern end developed by the Parks and Wildlife Department for public use.

The brilliant cliffs and rock formations reveal thousands of years of the earth's formation. Ample facilities for visitors include camping and picnicking areas, horseback riding, hiking trails and a miniature train. Camping fee is $2 per night plus a small service charge if hook-ups are used. Admission to the park is $1 per car.

After 6 p.m., theatre patrons are admitted without charge, other than for tickets for the performance at $5 for adults and $1.25 for children under 12. For reservations or information, write "Texas," Box 268, Canyon, TX 79015, or call 806-655-2182.

Curtain time is 8:30 p.m., with a barbecue dinner served beforehand, from 6:45 until 8 p.m. Drinks and snacks, souvenirs, and free parking also are available at the theatre. Summer performances are every evening except Sundays.

Health Standards Proposed For Farm

Amendments setting health standards for farm field workers were proposed recently by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, reports Joe L. Smetana, Texas Safety Association vice-president for Farm and Ranch.

The proposed standards, listed in the April 27 Federal Register, would require employers to provide potable drinking water and adequate toilet and handwashing facilities for all field workers. A minimum of one toilet facility for each 40 employees is proposed. For groups of five or fewer, facilities need not be in the field as long as they are easily accessible by readily available transportation.

Field food services, if provided by the employer, also would have to meet hygiene standards set by OSHA, if the proposals are approved.

Ceremony Weds Couple

Miss Jane Callaway and Mr. Charles Joe Maddox, Jr. were joined in marriage during an evening ceremony Saturday, June 5, at the First United Methodist Church in Cameron with the Rev. W. Wirt Skinner of Sherman and James T. Hendrix of Austin, cousin of the bride, officiating.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. James Lonnie Callaway of Cameron. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Joe Maddox, also of Cameron.

Furnishing the music was Mrs. Hillard Thomas, organist, and Mrs. Tommy Corley, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory silk organza and French lace designed with a wedding band neckline. The bodice and sleeves were appliqued with alencon lace and accented with pearls and crystals. The hemline of the gown and the attached chapel length train were bordered in scalloped alencon lace to match the bodice. Tiny covered buttons accented the fitted sleeves. To complete her bridal ensemble, the bride chose a chapel length illusion veil with a matching alencon lace cap which was bordered in tiny pearls to match her bridal gown. The bride's cascade bouquet was of white phalaenopsis orchids, stephanotis, and baby's breath.

Miss Jane Withrow of Kansas City, Mo., was maid of honor and Mrs. William Elliott of New Boston of matron of honor. Serving as bridesmaids were Miss Beth Ann Hendrix of Austin, cousin of the bride, Miss Jeannine Mulkey of Dallas, Mrs. Jimmy Barnes of Temple, and Mrs. Kay Chamblée of Waco.

The bridesmaids wore formal gowns of iced apricot chiffon with soft flounces over the shoulders. They carried nosegay bouquets of sonia roses, cornflowers, daisies, and miniature carnations and wore matching flower rings in their hair.

Mr. Harry A. Perrin of Dallas served as best man. Groomsmen were Mr. William F. Perrin, Mr. Don Brady, cousin of the groom, both of Dallas; Mr. Tony Saff of Austin, Mr. Ron Richardson of Waco; and Mr. Denny Dixon of McKinney.

Serving as ushers were Mr. David McClaren of Waco, Mr. Kyle Hendrix, cousin of the bride, Mr. Greg Perrin, and Mr. Jack Moore, all of Austin.

A reception was held following the wedding ceremony at the Cameron Country Club.

A green and white cloth covered the bride's table which held a centerpiece of white roses, white fuji mums, and baby's breath in a silver epergne.

The groom's table was covered in green centered with yellow fuji mums.

A flower arrangement of roses, carnations, and daisy mums on a white cloth decorated the buffet table.

Registering the guests was Mrs. James Key of Old Ocean. Others in the house-party were Mrs. John Harris of Houston, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Paul Chandler, Mrs. Randy Teague, and Mrs. Maurice Robert of Waco, Mrs. Grover McCullin, cousin of the groom, Mrs. Tommy Barton, Mrs. David Lawrence of Taylor, Mr. Marvin Young of Buckholts, Miss Paula Muecke of Austin, Mrs. Don Brady of Dallas, Mrs. Larry Hampton of Bryan, cousin of the groom, and Mrs. Bill Goeke.

Brunch Fetes Bride-Elect

Mrs. Coleman Duncan entertained Miss Jane Callaway, bride-elect of Charles Maddox, with a brunch in her home on Tuesday, June 1.

Special guests were Mrs. J. L. Callaway, mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. Charles Maddox and Mrs. Joe Fikes, mother and grandmother of the groom.

Personal Mention

Some Modern Wedding Services Dispense With Traditional

Proud parents won't be the only ones watching brides march down the aisle this June.

Clergymen, society editors, etiquette experts, poll takers, wedding shop owners, and other students of the passing parade will be watching, perhaps more sharp-eyed than ever before.

They'll be looking for changes in how Americans get married and how they feel about weddings, the National Geographic Society says.

One key question: Are weddings going out of style—traditional Here Comes The Bride weddings with white gowns, formal invitations, ritualized "I do," rice-throwing, gifts, honeymoons, and a big bill at the end for the father of the bride?

Barefoot Brides

"Do-your-own-thing" weddings of the counter-culture generation have challenged rigid tradition and nobody yet knows whether these informal ceremonies have cooled off in popularity the way political activism has on campuses and in inner cities.

"The Bride wore Bare Feet and Bell Bottoms" read one headline on a story of an open air countryside wedding. The newlyweds made up their own ceremony:

"I, John, take thee, Mary, to be my woman, to work for the liberation of all people, to love, embrace, to commit ourselves to do battle through the journey which is the celebration of life."

Often eliminated is any traditional reference of the bride "obeying" her husband, and "until death do us part" might become "as long as we both shall love," adding the "relevance" the couple feels is now missing.

A sympathetic clergyman says: "It's their marriage. They are the ones who have to make a go of it. They should have the say as to what kind of ceremony they have."

Something Borrowed

A doubtingetiquette writer observes: "They borrow from philosophies and religions other than their own but how often do they achieve anything like the dignity of the words of most traditional services?"

May Wedding Unites Couple

Mr. and Mrs. James Randall Simmons are presently living at 1004A N. Houston in Cameron following their wedding in May.

Mrs. Simmons is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen McLain of Rosebud and Mr. Simmons is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Simmons of Cameron.

Friends and relatives attended the wedding which was held Friday, May 4 at the First Baptist Church in Cameron with the Rev. Stanley Vodicka, Jr. officiating. After the wedding, guests attended the reception held at the First Baptist Church Fellowship Hall.

The bride is a 1973 graduate of Rosebud-Lott High School. The groom is a 1972 graduate of Yoe High School in Cameron and is presently employed at Alcoa.

Miss Widner To Represent FHA

Connie Widner, a C. H. Yoe High School homemaker student, will represent the FHA Chapter as Area VIII pianist for the 1976-77 school year.

Connie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil L. Widner, of Cameron, has been an active member of the FHA, Yoe High Band, and the girl's basketball team.

For over three years, Connie has played the piano in the church she attends. She also played for the OJT choir in 1974 and for the Jr. High graduation.

who gets what in case of divorce.

Some think marriage agreements also should decide whether the wife should be paid for washing dishes and wiping runny noses, and whether the husband should be paid for mowing the lawn and washing the car.

So far, the father of the bride still has exclusive rights on paying for the wedding, unless he can talk his daughter into sloping.

Then she adds: "Perhaps in a future edition of my book I will say that a bride may indeed go barefoot or bare bodomed when some of these things that seem unsettling now settle into a pattern."

According to one estimate, 80 to 90 percent of weddings in the United States remain traditional, usually in houses of worship. America's wedding business exceeds $7 billion a year.

Besides new words and untraditional music for ceremonies, couples may now draw up formal contracts agreeing on who is responsible for what household duties, on how to rear their children—even on

Foyt Claims Top Trophy In Sunday Texas 500

COLLEGE STATION
Thwarted in his bid for an unprecedented fourth Indianapolis 500 victory a week ago, Houston's A. J. Foyt fulfilled another ambition here Sunday by winning the fourth Texas 500.

Making the most of 11
caution flags, Foyt nursed his new '76 Chevelle to an average speed of 124.069 and recorded his first major triumph in his home state before an admiring crowd of 31,200 sunbaked fans.

Foyt took the checkered flag more than a lap ahead of runner-up Larry Hartman to collect the first prize money of $11,000, which is less than a fourth of the amount the bright orange Gilmore Special cost him.

Had Hartman not developed tire problems during the last 90 miles, however, the finish might well have been a close as three years ago when Buddy Baker beat Foyt by less than two feet in the last Texas 500.

The four-time United States
Auto Club stock car champion from South Zanesville, Ohio, was forced to pit on the 207th and the 250-lap event to take on a left rear tire.

That allowed Foyt to put a full lap between himself and Hartman, and for all practical purposes, the race was over - or so it appeared.

Foyt later disclosed,
though, that he too was having problems.

It was the first time two women, Arlene Hiss and

Martha Wideman, had competed in a major automobile race in the United States.

Both distaff drivers were among the 16 still on the track when the race ended.
Hiss was in the No. 9 position and Wideman, who missed several laps because of a clutch malfunction, finished 21st.

Bay Darnell provided the crowd with one of the most exciting moments when the crankshaft on his '75 Dodge came in two, dropped through the oil pan and ignited a spectacular fire in front of the grandstand down the main straightaway.

That bit of pyrotechnics,
which fortunately didn't harm Darnell, brought out the yellow flag for several laps on the 117th lap.

Although Foyt has indicated more than one occasion during the past that his days of competitive driving might be nearing an end, he denied he was considering retirement.

500 WINNER - A. J. Foyt held the trophy after his win at the Texas 500 Sunday at Texas World Speedway near College Station.

THIS - AND - THAT

In one of those you're-happy-to-admit-you-were-wrong situations, I'd like to point out Rob Andrews has been hitting like Ted Williams since the minute that column was done tweaking
the Houstons for swapping
Lee May for him and Enos Cabell. And, Astro Management insists Cliff Johnson can become a major league catcher. Hang around!

Joe Garagiola sez the Louisville Slugger people, who sell bats to the big leagues, are on the wrong track in having people like Joe Di-Maggio, Ted W. Willie Mays, Hank Aaron, and Yogi Berra endorse their products. "What do those guys KNOW about a bat," asks the lifetime, 210 batter, in mock anger. They step up there with all those reflexes and put the fat-of-the-bat on the ball everytime. It's the bad-hitters like me who really KNOW a bat!

BRANCH RETIRES

Young Ray Branch, the man who's been turning out the offensive lines which powered Baytown Sterling into the Class 4A State Playoffs the past five years, has resigned to enter private business. A former Victoria High School star, Branch played, and coached, under Abe Martin at TCU. Emory Bellard is enjoying all the excitement over UT Football Recruit Johnny Jones' 9.1 and 9.2 100-yard dash times.
You see, all the noise about Lampasas' Johnny is taking the heat off Aggie Super Runner Recruit Curtis Dickey of Bryan. Jones twice beat Curtis in the 100. By a step! But, at 207 pounds, Dickey outweighs JJ by 30 pounds. Little wonder they are calling the Aggie Wonder Runner, "Another O. J.
Simpson, only faster."

CBs Aiding Poachers Avoid Warden

CB operators are helping outlaw hunters by giving them the locations of Texas Parks and Wildlife Department game wardens.

Nearly all poachers have their "ears up" when hunting illegally. A larger number of deer are being killed this year by poachers working together using CBs.

A favorite tactic used by outlaw hunters is to have one poacher station himself where he has a good view of approaching cars. He will stay in contact with his "good buddy" who will be actively hunting. If he sees a game warden, he will warn his friend and the outlaw hunter will have time to hide all evidence before the game warden arrives on the scene.

The use of CBs by poachers reached a climax recently when a group of some 20 men were running deer with dogs in the timberlands of East Texas.

The poachers were staked out on roads and fire lanes listening for the dogs and watching for game wardens.

The dogs got on the scent and started baying. The poachers got excited and started talking to each other and maneuvering so they could be in the right place when the dogs chased the deer onto the road.

Game wardens were listening to the poachers. Landowners with base stations got on the air and started helping the wardens to locate the poachers.

Airwaves were jammed,
dogs were running, pickups and patrol cars raced around back roads.

The deer got away.
For lack of evidence, no case could be filed against poachers.

An old superstition says that if a girl sleeps with a mirror under her pillow, she will dream of what her future husband looks like.

When two hands are joined in the expression of friendship, love, marriage — that's a clasp.

Of course, we have another word: grasp. Little affection implied. Determination to seize, to control. To a sensitive mind grasp suggests GREED.

And does clasp, to a sensitive mind, suggest CLING? It was Our Lord who said of marriage that "a man shall leave his mother and father and cling to his wife, and they shall be one."

The Church provides the spiritual resources to strengthen marriage, to make firmer the bonds of family.

ADMIRING plans for the U. S. Department of Agriculture Grassland Forage Research Center are Senator

Bill Patman, left, and Congressman W. R. Poage, right.

Groundbreaking Held For New Grassland Forage Center

Sen. Bill Patman joined Cong. W. R. Poage in participating in the recent ground-breaking ceremony of the U. S. Department of Agriculture Grassland-Forage Research Center at Temple.

The expansion will provide for seven new buildings devoted to research for all 50 states on grasses and other forage. The center will be comparable to the main agricultural research facility at Beltsville, Maryland, but will concentrate on grasses.

Sen. Patman praised the new emphasis on grassland research as a badly needed response to the present economic situation. While 25 to 30 percent of the food supply of the typical American is based on forage, according to the Scientific American, forage receives only about four percent of agricultural research funds.

Yet, forage provides a way for cattle and other animals to utilize 40 percent of the land in the USA. According to the American National Cattlemen's Association, only 350 million acres, or 15 percent, of the land area in the U.S. can be used to grow grain and other crops.

Nine hundred million acres are in pasture and untillable grazing land which can be used by only cattle and other ruminant animals.

Q. Are there any U.S. industries still under federal price controls?
A. Yes, but just one. At present the oil industry is the only U.S. manufacturing industry still under federal price controls. It is also the only U.S. manufacturing industry whose distribution of goods is specified by government allocation procedures and one of the few U.S. industries whose access to its major source of raw materials is primarily controlled by the government.

Cowboy Cartoonist To Help Ramrod Trail Drive

SAN ANTONIO Nationally-known cowboy cartoonist Ace Reid will be putting on his act, and it's a great one, daily as he helps ramrod the Texas Tech Bicentennial Trail Drive and its herd of 70 Texas Longhorns from San Antonio to Lubbock.

Six hard days on the trail. The herd leaves San Antonio on June 27 with stops in Kerrville, San Angelo, Stamford, and Midland, arriving at the Ranching Heritage Center, Texas Tech University, July 2 just in time for opening ceremonies.

Reid is no newcomer to trail drives, having played a big part in the drive from San Antonio to Dodge City, Kan. in 1966.

And he's certainly no newcomer to readers of several hundred newspapers publishing his renowned "Cowpokes" cartoons. Nor to the millions of fans who purchase his books. His first "Cowpokes" sold more than a million copies. It led to five additional books over the years with still more in the making.

Heralded as the Cowpokes' answer to Will Rogers, Ace is of the same witty, jovial, enjoy life now you aren't going to get out of it alive anyhow, mold. Will Rogers made folks laugh and he's happy. Ace Reid makes folks laugh and he's happy.

There won't be a dull moment on this six-day Texas Tech Bicentennial Trail Drive and it won't all be because of the cantankerous Texas Longhorns.

Charles Schreiner III, owner of the YO Ranch, is Trail Boss and he'll do what he can to keep Ace under control, but as Schreiner knows, handling those Texas Longhorns will be much easier.

Want to help drive that herd to Lubbock? Contact Texas Tech Bicentennial Trail Drive, YO Ranch, Mountain Home, TX 78058 or call them at 512-640-3222.

7th Annual

FOLK FETE

JUNE 11-12-13

Fete Preserves Customs

Cameron and vicinity is unique and especially favored, in having several ethnic groups settled here.

Early in Texas history, hostile Indians occupied this land; but when a series of missions was established and there was a peaceful climate, many settlers, Southern, Czech, German, Irish, Mexican, Italian, Negro, and pioneering cattlemen saw the Little River and Brazos valleys with abundant water and fertile soil and made this their permanent home.

Little remains of some nationalities, their only identification being the name, but it is not unusual on a holiday or Sunday to hear groups speaking Czech, Spanish, German, intermingled with the slow drawl of a Texas cowboy.

To preserve, and renew some of the customs of the "Old Country," Folk Fete was created. The aim is to make the native dances, food, and perhaps some of the customs a permanent part of our culture.

Folk Fete had its beginning June 12-13, 1970 with the cooperation and enthusiasm already demonstrated by Cameron and neighboring towns, it has become an annual celebration, comparing in attendance and scope with any other celebration in Texas.

The first Folk Fete was created by a group of interested citizens headed by Miss Mildred Thornton and Mrs. Perry Holder. The first year's fete was held in the City Park with programs at Yoe Field and a tour of historical homes.

The Fete has grown since then to a three-day affair, or four-day, counting the queen's contest held on the Thursday before the Fete. Other new events include a chili cookoff, a beer garden, bicycle and tricycle races, and other games and contests.

Races this year will include egg relay, piggyback race, three-legged race, and sack race. The kiddies will also be catered to with a miniature train ride round the National Guard Armory grounds and three other kiddie rides.

Inside the armory, the Fete visitor will hear country music, Czech polkas, Irish jigs, Mexican rhythms, and "Put Your Little Foot" by Cameron's own German Folk Dancers. A Black Modern Group of dancers also hails from Cameron and will perform.

On the armory grounds, the visitor can choose from a wide variety of ethnic foods and visit arts and crafts booths for the beautiful and unusual.

Features of the annual Folk Fete change from year to year, but the original flavor is maintained.

Admission

Admission to the armory will be $3 on Friday night when The Moods will play, and on Saturday and Sunday, admission will be $2.50 for those over 12, 50 cents for those under 12, and children under 6 free if accompanied by a parent.

Train Ride

An extra added attraction for children at the Fete this year will be a miniature train which will make journeys around the armory grounds. This is in addition to three other kiddie rides available.

Folk Fete is again sponsoring bicycle races this year with other games and contests scheduled for the three-day event.

Jeff Webster is chairman for the games and contests and lists these events:

Tricycle race for 5 and under, starting 5 p.m. on the mall downtown on Friday, June 11.

A bicycle race for those children 11 and under and another bicycle race for all those 12 and above, adults included.

The bicycle races will start after the tricycle race is finished.

In addition, this year there will be some races on the Armory grounds on Saturday, June 12 at 11:30 a.m.

Events will include a three-legged race, sack race, egg relay, and piggyback race.

Awards will be presented for first, second, and third in each event.

Music Promises Variety Of Sights And Sounds

Music for this year's Folk Fete embraces a wide variety of sights and sounds, as Western, German, Czech, and Mexican groups add their performances for dances and just good listening.

Der Rhein Steins, popular Cameron band, will perform several times inside the Armory on Saturday and Sunday and will accompany the German Folk Dancers in their performances Saturday and Sunday.

Friday, The Moods of Country Music, popular group from Taylor, will play for a dance from 8 until 12 midnight.

On Saturday at 2 p.m., Irish nuns from Houston will provide some entertaining music as they dance and play the music of Ireland.

Ed Kadlecck Jr. of New Braunfels, will offer accordion music at 3 p.m. Saturday and will also have his family join in another performance at 6 p.m.

The Little Fishermen from New Braunfels will play for a Saturday night dance from 8:30 p.m. until 12:30 a.m. in the Armory.

Mexican folk music will be played by Mike Flores band of Cameron at 12:30 Sunday in the Armory.

Cameron Folk Singers will be on hand at 3 p.m. Sunday to sing a medley of folk songs, some dating way back.

The dance Sunday night from 6 to 10 p.m. will feature music by the popular Vrazel Polka Band of Cameron, putting an end to the Fete for this year.

Queen Contest Opens Fete

Entertainment for the Folk Fete Queen Contest which starts at 7:30 in Methodist Fellowship Hall Thursday, will include songs by Maruena Corley and Jerry Nail, music by Der Rhein Steins, and a dance group from the Judy Grant Studios at Waco.

Ten county beauties will vie for the title with the winner representing the Fete for the remaining three days. They will be judged on personality, poise, grooming, talent, and overall appearance.

The queen will reign during the Fete and will ride on a special vehicle or float in the Saturday morning parade. Her court will accompany her.

Judges for this year's contest are Judy Grant of Waco, Ken Baker, owner of The Sampler in Temple; Harold Whittington of Temple Junior College; and Larry Guess, of the TJC music department.

Parade Is Annual Event

The annual Folk Fete is kicked off for its Saturday doings by the annual Fete parade, to follow the usual route of downtown parades, with entries lining up on West Main.

Mrs. Pearl Krenk, parade chairman, said Rep. Dan Kubiak has accepted an invitation to be parade marshal this year, and he will lead floats, bands, horses, and other entries down the parade route.

Parade entries include bands, clowns, floats, new cars, old cars, farm equipment, and band wagons. There will also be decorated bicycles, horses, and other attractions.

Several out-of-town entries are also expected, Mrs. Krenk said.

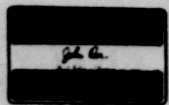

The annual parade is always a popular feature of the Fete.

So all your bills are paid and there's still cash in your checking account.

Congratulations!
You've just lost money.

You're losing the 5-1/4% that our No-Penalty Passbook pays.

After your bills are paid, take a good look at the balance in your bank checking account. Of course, you'll need part of it for day-to-day expenses. But how about the rest? If it's a sizeable amount, you're passing up easy money. You're losing the 5-1/4% interest this extra cash could be earning in our No-Penalty Passbook Savings Account.

That interest rate is the highest allowed by law, for a regular passbook savings account.

Compounded daily, it'll accumulate from the day you deposit until the day you withdraw. In addition, you'll be able to withdraw your money at any time without penalty — without forfeiting interest.

So why continue to pass up easy money? Open your account today, and tomorrow morning when you wake up, you'll be a wee bit richer.

LELY ROTERRA

FASTER, BETTER CROPSTANDS LESS TRIPS... LABOR... FUEL!

Cost-conscious Ohio farmers are saving up to 3 field trips, preparing up to 200 acres per day; earning $5 to $15 more per acre; and improving their soil structure with less compaction, less erosion and better moisture. All with the same machine. The LELY-ROTERRA!

It's unique, contra-rotating tines puts flexibility and durability where it does the most good. Look at the ways it can add to your 1974 farm income.

PREPARES SEEDBED

Crumbling the soil along its natural lines, the LELY-ROTERRA speeds through the field at speeds up to 7 m.p.h. to give a perfect seedbed in just one trip. Working behind the disk or chisel plow, its contra-rotating tines overlap to cover every inch of soil in the machine's path leaving behind a fluffy, moisture conserving, firm seedbed.

BETTER INCORPORATION

The LELY-ROTERRA is the most outstanding machine available for precise, high-speed chemical incorporation at recommended depths because of the overlapping whirling tines and precise working depth control on the Depth Control Roller. Eliminates need for double disking in most operations.

DESTROYS STALKS

The LELY-ROTERRA zips through corn, wheat, soybean and other grain stalks leaving it well-pulverized for complete decomposition and planter follow-up. There is less soil compaction because the trash is mixed with the soil giving it a "spongy" quality.

DOUBLE CROPPING

A LELY-ROTERRA is the best "middleman" you can have in your double cropping program. It lets you go from one crop to another in less time...with less trouble...and with less expense. With planters mounted behind the LELY-ROTERRA, you eliminate excessive soil-compacting and time-consuming field trips. Germination is improved. Savings are increased.

Overseeds And Fertilizes More Acres Than Any Other

When it comes to overseeding and fertilizing for spring grains and pastures, more Ohio farmers turn to the Lely broadcaster/seeder than any other. The reason is simple! Fast, accurate, low-cost coverage. The familiar red Lely broadcaster/seeder lets you be the boss of your fertilization/seeding program. It overcomes the bottleneck of overworked trucks and inclement weather. This spring, see your local Lely dealer for the one tool that pays season after season and proves to be cheaper and faster than a grain drill. Or write us for the name of your nearest Lely representative.

Lely's exclusive centrifugal force feeding system gives unequalled accuracy up to 52'. And with fertilizer in scarce supply and prices increasing as much as 40%, accuracy becomes the all-important aspect of broadcasting.

The Lely broadcaster/seeder does away with all "its", "ands", and "buts". Results in higher speed, less waste, better results.
